Orchard Hills School: Grades K-8th (Fall 2018)

When you purchase a residence at Lucca by The New Home Company, you are also investing in your children's education. Orchard Hills School is a short walk from home and is on par with high caliber curriculum and pathways to college preparedness while allowing parents the convenience of having their child attend one school for nine years.

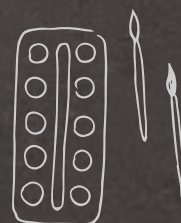

What sets the elementary and middle school uniquely apart from most schools is its teaching philosophy. Educators strive to discover the apex of each student's passion and talents in a quest to help develop them to the utmost.

To foster this, Orchard Hills School offers:

- Fundamental science, technology, engineering, arts and math (also known as STEAM) classes make up the core curriculum.
- Diverse elective courses such as computer graphics, video production, languages, home economics are offered.
- Students have the opportunity to join numerous clubs and participate in extracurricular activities.

Orchard Hills School was the recipient of the esteemed California Gold Ribbon School Award in 2015 – a designation by the California Department of Education that recognizes select public schools with outstanding educational programs and practices.

Beckman High School: Grades 9th-12th

Beckman High School is a testament to the exemplary top-tiered level of academia offered to Lucca residents. The school district boasts nearly a 100% high school graduation rate and Scholastic Assessment Test (SAT) scores for college bound students are not only some of the highest scores in California, but also in the entire nation. Among the school's many accolades, it is notably recognized for the following:

- Classrooms touted as "future ready" are equipped with state-of-the-art teaching devices, including tablets, interactive whiteboards, voice amplification and the latest computers.
- Cornerstones of the curriculum are hands-on project-based learning and exceptional science, technology, engineering, arts and mathematics programs (STEAM).
- The cutting-edge competitive robotics program is ideal for students with their sights set on engineering and technology careers.
- Beckman High's distinction in science and innovation is complimented by the Academy of Media Arts (AMA), an award-winning arts, media and entertainment program for those who have a calling for careers in film and theater.
- 2015 California Gold Ribbon School .

From elementary school through high school, the youth of Lucca will enjoy the educational privileges typical of elite private schools in close-to-home public school settings as they are remarkably prepared for their futures.
